The finca is located in the community of Banyalbufar, between Esporlas and Banyalbufar.

On the property there are two constructions named "Casas de Payés" and "El Chalet". The "Casas de payes" have a constructed area of approx.. 400m2 built in stone. In the same building there is also the "tafona", where originally the olive oil was produced. Furthermore it holds the old stables for the farm animals. All of this has to be completely reformed.

"El chalet" has a constructed area of approx.. 300 m2 and was built approx.. 80 years ago. It is in a deteriorated condition, but there is a plan for a complete refurbishment. It has sea views.

Although at this moment the property is neither connected to mains water nor electricity, installation is possible.

Apart from a series of terraces with ancient olive trees, the remaining plot is an area with stone oaks and pine trees.
